

PRESS INFORMATION

Christoph Lehner

COMPOSITION - SONGWRITING - SAXOPHONE

Christoph Lehner was born in Regensburg and studied English and Romance languages, philosophy and history of art in Regensburg, Pisa, Florence and Cambridge. Besides he graduated from Munich's Freie Musikzentrum where he studied jazz saxophone with Till Martin at the institute's jazz project. He continued to hone his musical skills taking lessons and attending workshops and masterclasses with Greg Fishman, Rick Margitza and Tony Lakatos. He was repeatedly awarded for his multilingual writings in prose and verse, among others he was awarded the prize for best lyric poetry by the Tuscan poets' association Chianti Fiorentino. He writes lyrics, composes and performs with the Munich-based trio Note Azure and has started a jazz quintet under his own name in 2021.

An overview about available photo material can be found on the next page and can be downloaded in the press section of my website www.christoph-lehner-jazz.de/press

PHOTOS

All photos, which you may use for editorial purposes only, can be downloaded in the press section of my website www.christoph-lehner-jazz.de/press.

Christoph Lehner
Photo: Skop Fotografie

Christoph Lehner
Photo: Skop Fotografie